MATRIMONIAL.

Coke-McCutochen.

[Russellville Herald.]

As announced, the wedding of Mr. J. C. Coke, Jr., of this place, and Miss Carrie McCutochen, of Auburn, took place Wednesday Oct. 13th at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Auburn at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McCormick, pastor of the church. The building was beautifully decorated with flowers, and during the ceremony the bride and groom stood beneath an exquisite floral arch.
There were no female attendants, the ushers being Messrs. Hugh Caperton, M. M. Wall, E. B. Wills, S. G. Long, A. G. Rhea, Jr., M. B. Bowden and Samuel Rose.
Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on the train for this place, where, at the residence of the groom's father, Mr. J. C. Coke, a reception and supper were tendered them, the ushers and a few special friends being present. The wedding presents were both numerous and elegant.
Mr. and Mrs. Coke are residing temporarily in Russellville, but will shortly move to their farm a few miles from here. With their host of other friends, we extend our best wishes, and hope that their days may be many, and that their cares may be few, and that they may enjoy the full measure of true happiness that they deserve.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Edward A. Starling and Miss Mamie Gallagher were married at Christ church, Rev. Craig officiating. Both the contracting parties are quite well and popularly known in society circles in Louisville. The bride is the daughter of Edward F. Gallagher, until recently stamp clerk in the Post-office. Mr. Starling has been for years, and is still, connected with the Old Kentucky Woolen-mills. Mr. and Mrs. Starling left at 12:30 for a short bridal trip through the South.—Commercial 14th.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Thos. Green, Jr., to Miss Ella T. Nourse, daughter of Rev. W. L. Nourse, at the Ninth St. Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. All of this city.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

[By Glover & Durrett.]
The sales on our market for the week just closed amounted to 2,459 hds., with receipts of only 590 hds. for the same period. The sales on our market since the 1st of January amount to 110,434 hds. Sales to the corresponding date last year amounted to 110,575 hds. There is nothing now to report from the market, prices remain about the same as last week. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco:
Trash—$1.00 to 2.00.
Com. to med. lugs—$2.00 to 3.00.
Good lugs—$3.00 to 4.00.
Com. to med. leaf—$3.50 to 4.50.
Good to fine leaf—$4.50 to $6.00.
Leaf of extra long—$6.00 to 6.00.
Wrappery leaf—$7.00 to 12.00.

HERE AND THERE.

The dirt roads are now in an excellent condition.
Messrs. Mason & Combs will have a sale for division at Locust Grove, on Nov. 10th.
Store room at No. 18, Ninth street, under this office, for rent for 1887. Apply here.
The Minute Castle Co., has gone to pieces and will not fill its engagements in this city this week.
A marriage license was issued Wednesday to Dr. J. B. Chisholm and Miss Celeste A. Lander.
There will be a sale of personal property at the residence of the late D. B. Owsley, on the 29th inst.

The speaking at Castlebury church is next Sunday instead of Saturday, as previously announced in this paper.
Dr. B. S. Wood's fine Stallion, "Manbrino Forest," captured a $75 premium at the Owensboro fair last week.
Mr. Tom C. Williams will sell a lot of personal property at the Gray place, on the Russellville road, on Nov. 20th.

Col. J. M. Dodd has traded his farm on the Buttermilk road, consisting of 250 acres, for Mr. George W. Smith's residence on South Virginia street.

While you are at the races, drop around and subscribe for the South Kentucky, and get more news for the money than you will by taking any other paper.

Mr. A. P. Freeman who has been handling French's pianos here for about a month, left Monday for his home in Nashville. He sold while here five pianos and five organs.

Dock Harrison, an unsuspecting old darkey from the country, came to town with $50 Wednesday and was speedily relieved of his money by a couple of colored confidence men.

A tobacco barn on Mrs. A. J. Walker's farm two miles north of town, was burned Monday night. It contained 15 acres of tobacco. Alex Walker, col., was the cropper who was working the farm. There was no insurance.

The tobacco barn of Shaw Gamble, near this city, was burned last Monday. It contained ten acres of tobacco belonging to Toliver Chappell, col., which was entirely destroyed, a loss of about $300. "Old Chap," as every calls him, is left in a very desolate condition and is passing around a paper this week asking for charity.

No other Jewelry house in this city or elsewhere can afford of will sell you clocks, watches, jewelry, diamonds, silverware, gold pens, spectacles, or anything else in the jewelry line as cheap as our old reliable jeweler, M. D. Kelly. Do not forget to call and see his immensely fine stock now on hand and daily receiving for the holidays. He has got them and no blow about it.

A little nine-months old child of Mr. W. A. Rickman, of Bellevue, fell in a tub of water one day last week and was drowned. Mr. and Mrs. Rickman lost three children by diphtheria in one week last year and the loss of their baby leaves them childless. They have the sympathies of many friends.

The celebrated tragedian, Mr. F. C. Bangs, will appear at the Opera House next Monday evening in his great specialty, St. Marc. Mr. Bangs is really and truly a great actor and our people have an opportunity to see some first-class acting. Where he has been the press has sounded his praise in insistent terms. His support is far above the average and the entire performance will be very good indeed, if we are to judge by the press notices in cities where Mr. Bangs has been.

Watch repairing is no guess work, or cut and try business with M. D. Kelly, nor is he dependant or incompetent workmen to tell him what repairs a watch may need. His 25 years' practical experience at the bench gives him advantages that cannot be gained in any other way. If you have a watch that you care anything for, it is safer and cheaper in the long run to take it to M. D. Kelly and have it honestly and intelligently adjusted.

The farmers of the Newstead vicinity had a wheat sale at Newstead last Saturday. The amount sold was 23,950 bushels. Mr. Ed. Whitfield, representing Kendrick, Pettus & Co., Clarksville, made the following purchases: J. R. Caudle, 6,000 bushels, 69¢; Nick Sallee, 1,500 bushels, 69¢; G. W. Stone, 2,000 bushels, 69¢; S. R. White, 2,400 bushels, 69¢; E. H. Henderson, 2,000 bushels, 69¢. The Crescent Milling Co., Hopkinsville, bought as follows: From J. W. McGaughey, 900 bushels, at 67¢; T. G. Gaines, 2,000 bushels, at 69¢; E. A. Stone, 2,000 bushels, at 69¢; W. H. Boyd, 850 bushels, at 68¢; R. H. McGaughey, 1,400 bushels, at 68¢; M. A. Mason, 2,000 bushels, at 68¢; Sallee, 900 bushels, at 68¢. The wheat was sold to the highest bidder, there being about half a dozen buyers on the grounds. The sellers agreed to deliver the wheat at Hopkinsville at 4½ cents, or at Newstead at 2 cents per bushel, in addition to the prices received.

The Races.

The first meeting of the Hopkinsville Jockey Club was held yesterday. A fairly good crowd was in attendance, though much larger crowds are looked for to-day and to-morrow. Some of the very best animals in the state are here and the races to-day and to-morrow will be equal to any to be seen over any course. The great "free for all" to-morrow is the event of the season and will be the finest display of speed ever witnessed in this city.

Pools are sold on the grounds, and any one wishing to back his judgment can do so in strict compliance with the laws of the state, which do not prohibit pool-selling on horse races. The Directors extend a cordial invitation to the ladies to attend free of charge, and large numbers are accepting the invitation.

Messrs. Perkins & Holt have the privilege of selling refreshments inside the grounds.
The following was the programme carried out yesterday, but as we went to press before the races were concluded we cannot give the winners until our next issue:
Trot for 3 year old and under 4, best 3 in 5, $80, $30, $15.—Smith Bros. Bowling Green, Darby; Dr. B. S. Wood, Hopkinsville, Geo. Blackburn; L. L. Dorsey, Middletown, Estelle.
Novelty running race, mile dash, first quarter $10, second $20, third $30, fourth $10.—B. E. Wilkinson, Gallatin, Liza Carter; L. L. Buckner, Hopkinsville, J. J.; Mc. H. Meador, Big Springs, Mary Mack; Dr. B. S. Wood, Hopkinsville, Judge Bowling; S. J. Fleming, Terre Haute, Ind., Hard Times.
Three minute trot, $130, $50, $20.—Mr. H. Meadors, Big Springs, Fannie D.; G. W. Haight, Louisville, Gautier; Jas. Medley, Hopkinsville, Nora G.; B. Grimes, Terre Haute, Rose Standish.
The programme for the other two days is given below:

HOTTER AND HOTTER.

The Wet and Dry Fight Waxing Warmer as the Time Draws Near.

What is Being Done By Both Sides.

Ed. Glass, col., and I. H. Jones, col., are stumping the county for the Wet side. We have not been able to get a list of their appointments.

There will be a temperance concert at the Christian church to-night, conducted by Mrs. Clarence Anderson. The public is invited.

Mrs. Wilson had an appointment to address the colored people at the Christian church last night in the interest of prohibition.

Mrs. Wilson spoke at the Baptist church Monday night. The church was densely packed, every available foot of standing room being occupied. Many ladies stood up during the entire services, while large numbers of ladies and gentlemen were turned away, being unable to get even standing room on the floor or in the gallery. Her address was a strong presentation of the Dry side of the prohibition question. At the conclusion 281 ladies pinned on prohibition badges and pledged themselves to work for prohibition until the day of the election.

Some strange things are being developed in the fight. Some citizens who have been total abstainers all their lives favor the Wet side, while one of the most prominent saloon men in the city has taken the stump for the Dry side.

The anti-liquor men will hold a grand rally at the court house Monday night. Mr. Feland will discuss the law on the question, Judge Pe-tre will discuss its effects on taxation, Maj. Breathitt its political bearings and Col. McPherson and Judge Landis its moral features. R. W. Henry, Robt. Lander and others will also speak.

The Dry men are claiming that they will not lose a district in the county outside of Hopkinsville.

There were 1,701 votes cast in the city districts last August, including 75 or 100 that are charged as being illegal by the contestants in the county judgeship matter. It is not at all likely that more than 1,500 votes will be cast in the two city precincts. If the Wet men get 1,000 of these the contest will be very close in the county, from present indications.

SATURDAY.

Running race, half mile heats, best 2 in 3, $65, $25, $10.—B. E. Wilkinson, Gallatin, Liza Webster; J. T. Williams, Hodgenville, Fannie W.; B. S. Wood, Hopkinsville, Judge Bowling; S. J. Fleming, Terre Haute, Ind., Hard Times; Joe Clark, Evansville, Lottery.

2:40 trot, $125, $75, $25.—Mc. H. Meadors, Big Springs, Fannie D.; G. W. Haight, Louisville, Gautier; D. Dodge, Nashville, Infidel; Jas. Medley, Hopkinsville, Nora G.; B. Grimes, Terre Haute, Rose Standish; L. L. Dorsey, Middletown, Estelle.

Running race, mile dash, $95, $40, $15.—B. E. Wilkinson, Gallatin, Liza Webster; Mc. H. Meadors, Big Springs, Mary Mack; Joe Clark, Evansville, Lottery.

Pacing race, free for all, $130, $50, $20.—Gill & Buckner, Clarksville, Henry Drane; D. L. Dodge, Nashville, Transfer; B. Grimes, Terre Haute, Little Ben.

Running race, mile heats, best 3 in 5, purse $300, did not fill, but will be completed by Saturday and run.

Free for all trot, $300, $150, $50.—J. G. Gaffney, Dixon, James G.; Mc. H. Meadors, Big Springs, Fannie D.; James Medley, Hopkinsville, Nora G.; Robert Dixon, Henderson, Principle; H. Simmons, Louisville, Jerome Turner.

Racing begins promptly at 1:30 o'clock. Ladies invited free of charge.

FLEEING FROM A MOB.

A Henderson Murderer Brought to this City.

James McElroy, a desperate criminal, was brought to this city Tuesday afternoon by deputy sheriff Hicks, of Henderson county, and lodged in jail. He is the negro who killed W. J. Mart, a farmer of Henderson county, the latter part of September. Mart had sold a load of melons and on setting out for his home in the country hired McElroy to go out with him and work on his farm. The next day McElroy's dead body was found in his wagon, he had been robbed of $17.65 and the negro was nowhere to be found. Mart had been literally beaten to death with a stick. McElroy was suspected and detectives were put to looking for him. He was heard of and John Swope, a colored man, put on his track. He was tracked into Daviess county where he murdered Swope, who was following him. Marshal Hodgins, of Uniontown, heard of him in Union county and surrounded him with a posse. McElroy fought desperately and fired his pistol until it was empty. Hodgins and his men fired upon him with shotguns and brought him down and he was captured and taken to Morganfield, seriously wounded. He was taken to Henderson last Monday, but the authorities learned that he would be lynched by a mob that night and he was hastily removed in a vehicle. The infuriated men seeing they were about to be out-witted started in pursuit. At one time the party passed within a hundred yards of him, but they were eluded. The officer made his way to Hanson and took the train there Tuesday and arrived here as above stated.

McElroy is badly wounded and the jail physician was called in to dress his wounds Wednesday. There are 62 shot in his left arm, while his side, leg and face are also filled with shot. As the wounds were all made with bird shot, none of them are necessarily fatal.

McElroy is a very black negro, below the medium in stature and not over 25 years of age. He has the reputation of being a very bad citizen and his looks would indicate that he has not been misrepresented. He refuses to talk further than to deny in a general way that he killed either Mart or Swope.

A mob would not have an easy job to get him out of our jail and he is pretty safe here. Jailor Long is a resolute and courageous man, and would resist any attempt to take him; the police are within 50 yards of the jail and "Company D." would be tickled to death at having an opportunity to fight a mob. It is not known how long he will be kept here, but it will probably be as long as there is danger of violence.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18, '86.

TO THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:

The Cabinet Ministers are all back at their posts, and hard at work on their reports to be submitted to Congress when it meets again in December. At the Cabinet meeting held on Thursday all the Ministers were present except Secretary Manning. The Secretary is on duty, but saving himself all that is possible. It is believed that he will remain at the head of the department, unless he finds his health being injured by attention to the duties of his office. He returned to the city at this time to personally supervise the preparation of the annual financial report of the department, and will see that nothing is contained in the reports of any of the chiefs of his bureaus that is not strictly in harmony with his financial views.

Although the Supreme Court of the United States met on the second Monday in October, as required by law, still fewer cases were heard in the history of the court. Immediately upon the opening of the court, and after a large number of lawyers of ability from the different States were admitted to practice, the Chief Justice announced that in keeping with the long established custom the court would adjourn that its members might pay their respects in a body to the President of the United States, and that the call of the docket would be proceeded with the following day. After hearing argument in one case the court on Wednesday adjourned until the following Monday out of respect to the memory of Chief Justice Chase, who remains to be removed Wednesday afternoon from Washington to Ohio. Several of the Justices attended as an escort to the body.

Notwithstanding the widely circulated stories that none of our shipbuilders would be big enough to construct of all the principal shipbuilders in the country have been here the past week consulting with Secretary Whitney, and getting points to be used in submitting bids for the work. The fight for the position of Surgeon General of the Army still continues. It seems that the President had determined at last to appoint Assistant Surgeon General Perin to the office, but Chief Medical Purveyor Baxter turned against with the claim of seniority, which has delayed the appointment until the justice and legality of the claim can be inquired into. It is believed, however, that the question will be disposed of in a few days, and that Perin will get the appointment.

Among the President's callers this week was the Magician Hermann, who has been giving exhibitions of his magic art for a week past in Washington. The magician performed several very clever tricks, and the short interview with the President, and the latter intimated that he would be pleased to have the wizard give a voisre some evening during the week at the White House. The voisre was given, and the distinguished company present were highly entertained and let into some of the secrets of the art.

Now that Secretary Lamar has appointed the board of appeals in pension cases, composed of six members and provided for a set of the law, Congress, meritorious pensioners will not be kept long in waiting for action on their claims. A great many meritorious claims are refused by the Pension Office, because of the ignorance of the principles of law and rules of evidence by the clerks who pass upon the claims. The newly appointed board of appeals is composed of men who are learned in the law, and justice will now be done the pensioner.

The action of the President in requiring the son of Senator Harris, and also the son of Senator Pugh to resign has caused much unfavorable comment among politicians now at the Capitol. The peculiar ideas of the President, not only about retaining Republicans in office, but now in disfranchising prominent men because they are the relatives of Democrats prominent in national politics, are not at all relished, and elicit very severe criticism from most Democrats that meet here from the States. Senator Harris and Pugh were heretofore given the President their most cordial support in the Senate chamber in furthering his civil service policy, but this winter may show a marked change in their views and sense of duty concerning the subject.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took one bottle and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Armstrong's Drug Store."

Notwithstanding the cry of hard times the people find time and money enough to subscribe for the Kentuckian and we continue to get new subscribers every day. The paper is still others who are in need of good reading at a cheap rate, to whom we would like to send our paper. We can give you more for your money than you can get elsewhere, so try the Kentuckian.

A Truthful Man.

Hon. David Davis tells the frozen truth when he says: "Each year every local paper gives from $100 to $500 in free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can do this. The local editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other ten men, and in all fairness, man with man, he ought to be supported, not because you happen to like him or admire his writings, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliant or crowded with great thoughts, but financially it is more of a benefit to a community than a preacher or teacher. Understand us now, we mean morally or intellectually, but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find the majority of the local papers are on the right side of the question. To-day the editors of local papers do the most work for the community of any man on earth. Subscribe for your local paper, not as a charity, but as an investment."

It Will Not Disappoint You.

I contracted blood poison two years ago. I was treated with Potash. Necessary for over two months by physicians. I thought I was well, but fires were only smoldering. The eruption came out anew more violent than before. A friend who had tested a similar case suggested S. S. S. As the disease passed away, it left me with mercurial rheumatism as the result of taking the mercury and potash mixtures. That is also yielding to the force of S. S. S. Specific, and will soon be gone. To the afflicted I would say, give it a fair trial, and you will not be disappointed in results.

OKLAHOMA BOOMERS

Army Officers Heavily Tired of Chasing the Plovers and Persevering Settlers.

"It is not half so much fun chasing these boomers out of Indian Territory as some folks imagine. I have seen them when questioned on the subject. 'You are not of them are you?' they chuck and independence and they don't care any more for the United States army than they would for a swarm of mosquitoes. You can't scare an American with the army, because he knows that the soldiers won't shoot, and so we go marching around in military fashion, chasing this man and that man, until the thing gets to be a good deal of a farce."

"What is needed out here is a police force of about two hundred men, armed with clubs. If I had such a command I would keep Oklahoma clear until the Government would be open to it. The other day I found two or three men and women, with about a dozen children, over the line getting ready to settle, and I told them they would have to move on."

"There?" asked one of the men. "Anywhere," I said, "so long as you get out of here. You can't stay here."

"Why not?" I explained. "This is Government land and you know it. You'll have to move."

"Well, they piled all their things and their children into a couple of big wagons and started north. We watched them awhile, and concluded that they were going for sure, but the next day, when we passed that way, there they were again in the old place. The spokesman colored up a little when he saw me, and said:

"To tell the truth, Colonel, I just thought this thing was all red tape, and that so long as you didn't do your duty I'd take the responsibility of coming back. I didn't think you'd be here so soon. It's a run, is it?"

"I told him it was a run, and that if he came in again I would have to place him under arrest. Then we escorted him and his party over the line, and watched them for two or three days until they strolled away."

"Some of the boomers are worse than fleas. Plenty of them have no women and children, and they are very bright and about with great celerity. I remember a few weeks ago we came across an old fellow away down about twenty miles from the line. He had actually hauled a family of five into the country, and was shanty, in which he had been living a month or two. Over the door he had scratched with a lead pencil, 'John Riley's Claim.' When we rode up he was sitting out in front smoking his pipe and waiting for us. He said:

"What are you doing here?" I asked.

"Locatin' my place," he said.

"Well, you'd have to get out, I continued."

"Because this land isn't open yet, and our orders are to remove every body found here."

"Well, by thunder," said the old man, "you can't remove one side of me. Not much, you can't. I'm sitting inside of his cabin, and I brought out a rifle, and continued: 'I was there three months of yours five years in Virginia when there was some mighty tall hustlin' going on between the Japs and the Potomac, and I'm tired if I'm going to be lassoed in this way; I'm a peaceful settler, a-hurtin' of nobody, and if the United States army comes a-pickin' on me, then all there is to that no and Uncle Sam will have a row, and he'll be the first time, too. You just go along, now, and let me alone.'"

"I didn't want to make war on one old soldier who appeared to be enjoying himself, and so I gave him a week to vacate his claim and passed on. As luck would have it, it was a fortnight before we got around that way again, and then the cabin was gone. He had moved it away somewhere else, but we'll run across him again awhile."

"I don't wonder that the people want to get into the country. It's the prettiest land in the world. They destroyed some houses near a river bank that had been occupied by several families. We had put them out two or three times, and finally, to make a sure job of it, we burned their houses. They had a magnificent site for a town, and had selected it for that purpose. Their leader, a shrewd young fellow, came to me afterward, and wanted to make an arrangement by which he could get his claims on that particular section of the Jay Territory was opened. He thought I could help him to it if I wanted to, and he said, 'If I would, he would give me my pick of the corner lots, and he would be the first time, too. You just go along, now, and let me alone.'"

"We meet with a good many sad cases, too, and I shall be glad when they open up. It is—Hawwell (Kan) Cor. N. Y. Sun.

STAGING DAYS.

A Veteran Driver's Interesting Chat About the Days Preceding Railroads.

The men who drove stages in Canada before the days of railways are becoming fewer as the time passes away. There are several who live in or near Toronto, and about the most experienced of them is a man who began driving in 1831 and is now sixty-six years of age. He was born in South Carolina March 22, 1820, and was brought to Upper Canada by his parents when he was ten years of age. He is best known in this city by the somewhat suggestive name of Whisky Bill. It was not on account of his fondness for liquor that he received this title, for sober men were always selected as stage-drivers, but through a little incident which occurred at Post's Hotel, on the Kingston road, twenty-five miles from Toronto, early in his driving career. At that time the stage was a stage-wagon, and the stage-drivers were to "put up a job" on Bill. Whisky was cheap, and so they all chipped in and bought forty-two gallons of eighteen cent brandy. They then fastened the barrel containing the liquor overboard in the bar-room, and when Bill came in on his next trip they tilted the cask and drenched him with its contents. Ever since then he has been known far and near as "Whisky Bill."

Bill recently recounted some interesting reminiscences of the old staging days. "Staging was done in the winter," said Bill, "in common lumber wagons with wooden springs, which went inside the box and canvas covers. In summer 'thorough-brace coaches,' as they were called, were used. They had leather springs, and were covered as heavy as water-tight. They carried twelve inside passengers and two outside comfortably. I tell you a man could ride like a leech on one of them. We could make seventeen miles in two and one-half hours easily, and each driver was to have a run of seven miles, and he always remained with his horses whenever they stopped. In the spring it was very hard to get away. I have seen some stage-coaches stuck fast in the mud, and have had to get out and walk most of the way with rails over their shoulders to pry the coach out of the mud. In winter the snow-banks were a terror. I remember once in 1851 we lost a mail-bag on the Rogers' line, between Old Mill Marsh and Newtonville, and it was never found until spring, when the snow had thawed away."

"We used to get $12 a month and board. In those days things were cheap. You could get 25 cents for a York shilling, and a quarter always treated the whole bar. Whisky was only worth 20 to 25 cents a gallon, and some as low as 18 cents. That was the stuff that a man could get drunk on, and not get a headache on him in the morning. No one scarcely had the D. T. in those days, and there was no such thing as finding your stomach loaded with drugs in the morning. Meals commonly were 25 cents, and every ton of hotels charged as high as 50 cents. Beds were a York shilling wherever meals were 25 cents."

"In staging days accidents sometimes happened, and I have often known people get their arms and legs broken. Passengers often got damaged, too, for injuries sustained. One time a driver upset a coach between Newtonville and Newtonville, and a man had an arm broken and three legs broken. He was 20 or 25 years of age, and was a head on him in the morning. No one scarcely had the D. T. in those days, and there was no such thing as finding your stomach loaded with drugs in the morning. Meals commonly were 25 cents, and every ton of hotels charged as high as 50 cents. Beds were a York shilling wherever meals were 25 cents."

OVER NIAGARA.

Two Dogs Which Went Over the Falls with the Current.

It is an error to say that no creature that ever went over Niagara Falls escaped with its life. In 1836 a bull terrier went over and came out alive. In 1838 another dog was flung above the Falls, and an hour afterward it came dripping up the ferry steps, a little rattled and disgusted with things in general, but otherwise uninjured. A recent writer says that there can sometimes be seen at the foot of the Falls water apparently ten or twelve feet high. These are formed by the rapid accumulation and condensation of the falling water. It pours down so rapidly and in such quantities that the water below, so to speak, can not run off fast enough, and it piles up as though it were in a state of violent ebullition. These cones are constantly falling and breaking. A hardy animal falling on to one of these cones as on a soft cushion, might slide safely to the bottom without injury. The dogs were, doubtless, fortunate enough to fall in this way and were also aided by the repulsion of the water from the rocks in the swift channel through which they passed.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Have used Tongaline in a case of neuralgia of 35 years standing. For the last few years the patient has been unfit for work nearly all the time. Has not been free from pain for many years. Was suffering extreme pain when he began taking Tongaline. He has not had a severe attack since beginning its use eight days since. This is remarkable, from the fact that he has been able to do for twenty years. It is a splendid nerve tonic. H. P. Nelson, M. D., Ashland, Ohio.

As the fall trade approaches the business men should look around to see where they can spend their money to the best advantage in advertising. Considering the fact that the KENTUCKIAN is now in its eighth year, and the cheapest semi-weekly in the State, it must necessarily have a good circulation to sustain it. The merchants who place their advertisements with us lay them before a class of people who pay cash for their paper, and who are more valuable to an advertiser than those who take a paper on a credit and never pay for it, or for any thing else they buy. Our paper is largely circulated in this and adjoining counties and those who patronize our columns will get value received for the money invested. So bring in your advertisements.
